Originated thousands of years ago, the twelve Chinese zodiac animals are an important part of traditional Chinese culture. Among the twelve zodiac animals, the Dragon is a mythical creature that symbolises prestige and power, and is widely known as an emblem of auspiciousness and good luck. As the Year of the Dragon is approaching, Hongkong Post will release the first issue of the fifth Lunar New Year special stamp series. A set of four stamps and two stamp sheetlets showcase the vivid depiction of the Dragon with different graphic elements and festive colours, giving an atmosphere of rejoicing in celebration of the Year of the Dragon. The $50 stamp sheetlet is a laser-cut paper art stamp sheetlet issued by Hongkong Post for the first time. The motif on the stamp is laser-cut to create a delicate silhouette of a dragon. The elaborate design of the paper-cut, coupled with the exquisite making technique, render the stamp sheetlet a perfect collectible in the Year of the Dragon. In addition, “Gold and Silver Stamp Sheetlet on Lunar New Year Animals – Rabbit/ Dragon” and “Gold and Silver Stamp Sheetlet on Lunar New Year Animals – A Complete Collectible Set” will be issued at the same time to celebrate the new year.

Hong Kong is a city where East meets West and where tradition and modernity intertwine, with many historic buildings around. Historic buildings are symbols of our cultural identity and continuity. They also carry various kinds of academic and aesthetic value. Hongkong Post will issue a set of six special stamps on the theme of “Declared Monuments in Hong Kong II” with a view to fostering the public’s understanding and appreciation of historic buildings in Hong Kong.

Hong Kong is renowned for being a “clean city”. It is attributed to the concerted efforts of the community and the Independent Commission Against Corruption in fostering a probity culture. To tell the good anti-corruption stories of our city, Hongkong Post will issue a set of six special stamps and a stamp sheetlet on the theme of “Anti-corruption in Hong Kong”, reliving the city’s momentous days of fighting corruption over the past 50 years.

Cheung Chau Jiao Festival was inscribed onto the “First Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage for Hong Kong”. Hongkong Post will launch a special stamp issue on “Cheung Chau Jiao Festival” to promote this intangible cultural heritage of Hong Kong, in the hope that this traditional festival and the folk crafts can pass down the generations.

Chinese porcelain enjoys a high reputation both at home and abroad. Chinese tea culture has a long history, and tea ware is an integral part of the Chinese ceramics. Hongkong Post will issue a set of six stamps and two stamp sheetlets on the theme of “Hong Kong Museums Collection – Selected Tea Ware from China and the World” to showcase selected tea ware from China and the world from the Collection of the Flagstaff House Museum of Tea Ware, demonstrating the development and influence of Chinese tea culture in history.
