

Deferred Collection of Certain Stamp Products of Advance Orders of “Together, We Fight the Virus” Special Stamps

Advance orders for “Together, We Fight the Virus” Special Stamp products were accepted during 16-29 December 2020. From 29 December 2020, Official First Day Covers and two stamp sheetlets (“in recognition of the heroes across the community for their fight against the virus”) and (“in gratitude for the Central Government’s support to Hong Kong’s anti-epidemic efforts”) have been put on sale at all post offices and “ShopThruPost”. The ordered philatelic products are scheduled to be ready for collection/delivery as from 26 January 2021 simultaneously. Due to the overwhelming response, we would require additional time for production and packing of philatelic order. Hence, advance orders for the following products will not be available for collection at designated post offices on 26 January 2021 as advised earlier. We apologise for any inconvenience caused. Philatelic products that will not be ready for collection/delivery as from 26 January 2021 are:
