

About the Collector Pack for "Hong Kong Museums Collection – 19th Century China Trade Paintings "

Hongkong Post is launching an issue of six stamps and two stamp sheetlets under the theme “Hong Kong Museums Collection – 19th Century China Trade Paintings” on 25 May 2021. Eight paintings that documented the varied facets of the market at the time have been selected for the stamp design. To relish all these art pieces one by one, philatelists shall not miss the Collector Pack which comes with treasurable contents.

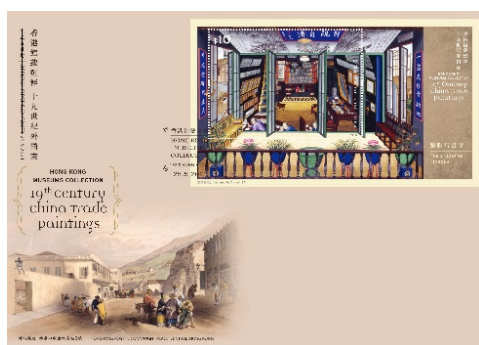

The Collector Pack includes a set of six stamps, a $10 stamp sheetlet, a $20 stamp sheetlet, a serviced first day cover and two serviced collector covers*. The eight original paintings are shown in their entirety for appreciation by stamp lovers. The first day cover and the collector covers are designed on the paintings used for three of the stamps respectively. The first day cover features the porcelain shop intricately illustrated on the pale green background, bringing a sense of freshness and elegance; the collector covers on the other hand adopts a simple style for the design. Affixed with the $20 stamp sheetlet, the collector cover embodies a strong historical ambience which helps to set off the stamps in vibrant colours. The two serviced collector covers are included exclusively in the Collector Pack and not for sales separately, making them precious collectables. Please be reminded that the deadline for order to be collected on the issue date is 13 April 2021. Seize the chance and shop for your favourites!
